TRAVELED 10,000 MILES.

Doctor and Mrs. G. Y. Bliss Return from European Tour.

Burlington, Oct. 12.—The Rev. Dr. and Mrs. George Bliss returned to this city Thursday from their European trip. Doctor and Mrs. Bliss were absent from the city 112 days and in that time traveled over 10,000 miles. They left Burlington, June 21 and sailed from New York city the next day on the steamer Campanian of the Cunard line. They arrived in England the last day of June, spent two weeks in London and the southern part of England, passing into Scotland for a ten days' stay.

Returning to London they crossed to the continent August 13 and visited Holland, Germany and Switzerland, where they spent three weeks. Passing over into Italy in the early part of September they visited Milan, Venice, Florence, Rome, Naples, Pompeii and Capri. They sailed from Naples September 24, touching for one day on the coast of Spain and reaching New York city day before yesterday.

Danger from the Plague.

There's grave danger from the plague of coughs and colds that are so prevalent, unless you take Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs, and colds. Mrs. Geo. Walls of South City, Me., writes: "It's a Godsend to people living in climates where coughs and colds prevail. I find it quickly ends them." It prevents pneumonia, cures a gripe, gives wonderful relief in asthma and hay fever, and makes weak lungs strong enough to ward off consumption, coughs and colds. 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by the Red Cross pharmacy. Trial bottle free.

THE SILENT VOTE.

The Things That Men Think of Women and Women of Men.

Most men have some silent opinions about women and most women about men. There are certain types of faces, certain kinds of manner, certain methods of expression even, for which many men and women are utterly condemned in the minds of some of their brothers and sisters. A disposition to dislike certain types of face is at times so strong as to suggest a previous existence.

We do not openly say that all women with such and such eyebrows are hard-hearted or that a man must be a charlatan if the color of his eyes and hair contradict each other; but we act conditionally upon notions hardly less unreasonable. Educated men with small vocabularies, for instance, are divided as a rule by clever women into fools by birth and self-made fools, according to whether their want of equipment be ascribed to nature or to affectation.

To the first they are indifferent; to the latter they have almost always a more or less active dislike. Such men are often able, a fact they own sex invariably recognize. The man whose words are few and ill-chosen may be a man of prompt and reasoned action; who having been brought up among the silent wise or the garrulous silly despises the waste of pains occasioned by the gabble of talk. All mental activities bore him just as physical athletics bore others.

In the same way the fact that a man pretends to know no more words than a savage may be a matter of awkward though genuine humility—a fear of pretending to a culture he does not possess—or an act of superficial conformity to a passing fashion among a small set. It may have no more to do with his real mind than an ugly figure or an ill-cut coat. Circumstances will sometimes convince even a clever woman of these facts so far as a given man is concerned, but she will never alter her silent opinion as to the generally.

Clever women are very hard on the men they imagine to be fools. Able men on the other hand, are not at all hard on women they know to be stupid. Where youth and beauty are concerned, the fact is easily understood. But youth and beauty by no means explain the whole of this phenomenon. Many men are inclined to think that the loss of mental power in women which we colloquially call brains exists in inverse ratio to their common senses and serves only to carry them with fatiguing rapidity through verbal fallacies to a false conclusion.—London Spectator.

THE DEADLY WORK OF TIME.

She gazed upon him with a sigh: 'Twas seven years since they had parted. She proudly biding him goodbye. He turning from her broken hearted. She vividly recalled the place. And each sad word that he had spoken; Hot tears had trickled down his face. Her own heart had been nearly broken.

Without her, he had sadly said: 'That life would be a burden to him; She had supposed that he was dead. For he had left the haunts which knew him. He'd said that he must pine away. Because she would not let him claim her.

Her conscience since that dismal day Had often roused itself to blame her. She gazed upon him with a sigh: Who once had left her broken-hearted; He had not gone away to die. As he had promised when they parted; He had not died. 'Twas plain to see. And as she stood there smiling at her. She murmured to herself: "Ah, me, He's gone and got a whole lot fatter!" —Chicago Record-Herald.

HUNDREDS LOST.

Turks Beaten in Sharp Fight by Rebels in Arabia; 360 Put Hors de Combat.

Constantinople, Oct. 13.—The rebellion against Turkish rule in the province of Yemen, Arabia, shows no signs of subsiding and whenever a pitched battle is fought the rebellious Arabs seem to be victorious over the unwilling Turkish conscripts sent to subdue them.

Severe fighting has occurred in the district of Azir between government troops and the tribe of Beni-char, in which the Turks were routed with the loss of 100 men killed and 60 wounded. The casualties of the Arabs are said to have amounted to 300 men.

We believe it would be difficult to find a more desirable place, either as a money maker or in more pleasant location. The place will carry 25 cows, summer and winter, and produces about 70 tons of hay. The soil is especially rich and productive, being well adapted for any crop. Tillage land lays well. Pasture can be plowed, and for its size cannot be beat in the county. The cut gives an idea of the buildings, but the place must be seen to be appreciated. Nice water and plenty of fruit and wood. We will be pleased to show you this property and tell you about the income derived from it. Large photograph at office. Call any time. Open every evening except Thursday.
